

Yvann Thibaudeau

Editor

---

BIOGRAPHY

With a rich experience in editing over 75 feature films and more than 350 hours of television content ranging from dramas to comedies, Yvann Thibodeau has established himself as an exceptional editor in the Canadian and international cinematic landscape. His tireless pursuit of excellence has enabled him to maintain remarkable quality in his works, rewarded by multiple prestigious distinctions. He is notably recognized for his work on award-winning works such as Starbuck (2012 Golden Reel Award, 2012 Jutra Golden Ticket Award) and successful films by Ricardo Trogi (1991, 1981, and The Guide to the Perfect Family), not to mention his notable contribution to films like Louis Cyr, acclaimed by both audiences and critics (Jutra Award for Best Film, Téléfilm Canada's Golden Box Office Award).

Throughout his dazzling career, Yvann has been honored with four major awards in Quebec and has been nominated numerous times, including seven times at the Canadian Screen Awards and seven times at the CCE Awards, evidence of his talent and significant impact in the industry.

Always aiming higher, Mr. Thibaudeau now aspires to broaden his horizons into production. With his impressive journey, Yvann Thibaudeau is firmly focused on the future, promising that the best is yet to come.

---